Mikey Network nets $100,000 from Hugh Heron Ceilidh

At a special Queen's Park presentation on behalf of The Mikey Network, Chairman Hugh Heron (third from the left) recently accepted a $100,000 cheque for 33 mikey defibrillator packages. Co-chairs of the homebuilding and development industry Ceilidh (pronounced k-lay), marked Hugh's 70th birthday earlier this year. Presenting the cheque (pictured right to left) Peter Smith, President of Andrin Homes; Alan Heron, President of Alan Heron Homes; and the Hon. Alvin Curling, former speaker of the Legislative Assembly of Ontario. The Hon. Jim Watson, Ontario Minister of Municipal Affairs & Housing (second from left) and Mikey Network Executive Director Morty Henkel (far left) also attended the presentation, held on the front steps of the provincial Legislature.
