

Tuesday, April 13, 2010

Heathwood Homes - Releases new lots in two communities

BuzzBuzzHome

April 13, 2010

In scenic north Richmond Hill, Heathwood Homes has released the second phase of lots in two distinctive and exclusive communities that are immersed in beautiful natural surroundings.

New lot choices are now available in [Forestbrook \[map\]](#) and [The Reserve \[map\]](#), both featuring single-family residences nestled into existing neighbourhoods. Many of the homes back onto a ravine or open space area with striking views of the beautiful natural setting.

Live in a home on a 43' or 50' lot close to the multitude of amenities and services along Yonge Street, as well as the area's parks, schools, shopping, golf courses and more. Plus, York Region VIVA, GO transit, and both the 404 and 407 nearby.

Among Heathwood's most luxurious communities, Forestbrook and The Reserve have a lot of other elements in common. The stunning exterior elevations include brick, stone and/or stucco designs. Discover sumptuous layouts with varying highlights such as main floor laundry rooms, formal dining rooms with coffered ceilings, stunning living rooms with vaulted ceilings, large gourmet kitchens and much more. Plus, these ENERGY STAR®-qualified homes are graced with 8-foot front doors, 9-foot main floor ceilings, hardwood flooring throughout the main level (as per plan), oak stairs, gas fireplaces, granite kitchen countertops, and energy-saving features such as programmable thermostats, motion activated lights in bathrooms, dual-flush toilets and an In Home Monitoring Display. The combination of all of the above represents tremendous value for buyers of all ages who appreciate the finer things in life.

The Reserve is located north of King Road, off of Humberland Drive between Bathurst and Yonge, adjacent to a forest preserve. The homes here grace two cul-de-sacs bordered by pines, maples and beech trees. Every 50' lot is unique and they all include a walkout basement! Within a few minutes, residents can be at the schools, parks, golf courses and recreation facilities in the area.

The Reserve residences on 50' lots range in size from 2,663 to 4,471 sq. ft. and are priced from $684,900. First occupancies are slated for the summer of 2011.

Featuring walking trails, ponds and a spectacular park, Forestbrook is situated on Rothbury Road, south off Gamble Road, west of Yonge Street. The single-family homes in this collection are on 43' and 50' lots, and neighbours will have plenty of opportunities to gather in the great outdoors. An exclusive oasis, this beautiful natural neighbourhood is also just steps to Yonge Street and everything it has to offer. Shopping is handy at Elgin Mills Shopping Centre, while other amenities range from the public library to local hockey arenas.

At Forestbrook, the 43' singles range in size from 2,191 to 4,003 sq. ft. and are priced from $582,900. The 50' singles range from 2,663 to 4,471 sq. ft. and start from $669,900. First occupancy is slated for Spring 2011.

Heathwood Homes has earned a reputation by creating superb communities across the GTA. These new residential collections are premier examples of Heathwood's craftsmanship and design panache, offering both prestige and value in incomparable surroundings.